THE MINES

Michigan Troops Being
Rushed to the Copper
Mine Country

CLASHES ARE PREDICTED

Despite Policy of Western Federation Against Use of Force—Soldiers Will Act Under Direction of Sheriff.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Calumet, Mich., July 25.—With six militia companies on duty and other state troops enroute from both the upper and lower peninsulas of Michigan, the strike of copper miners settled measurably towards a state of dull routine today, the third of its existence. Some of the more enthusiastic union members organized parades and marched through several locations but there was practically no disorder up to noon. The union leaders held fast to their previous attitude, demanding recognition of the Western Federation of Miners as a sinequino, but this was not even considered by the company management.

The pinch of strike conditions, however, spread more generally through the score or more communities dependent upon the mines, mills and smelters. The action of Hancock retailers in refusing further credits to customers yesterday, was repeated in other sections of the district and it was announced that the wholesalers would take similar action Monday. As a consequence there was little of the holiday spirit which frequently shows itself in the initial stages of mine strikes.

Union and non-union men alike showed their appreciation of the fact that the strike was likely to drag into a long siege with the companies abandoning work of all kinds as rapidly as conditions required such action. At union headquarters plans were laid for a big mass meeting next Sunday and for district and local meetings tonight and tomorrow.

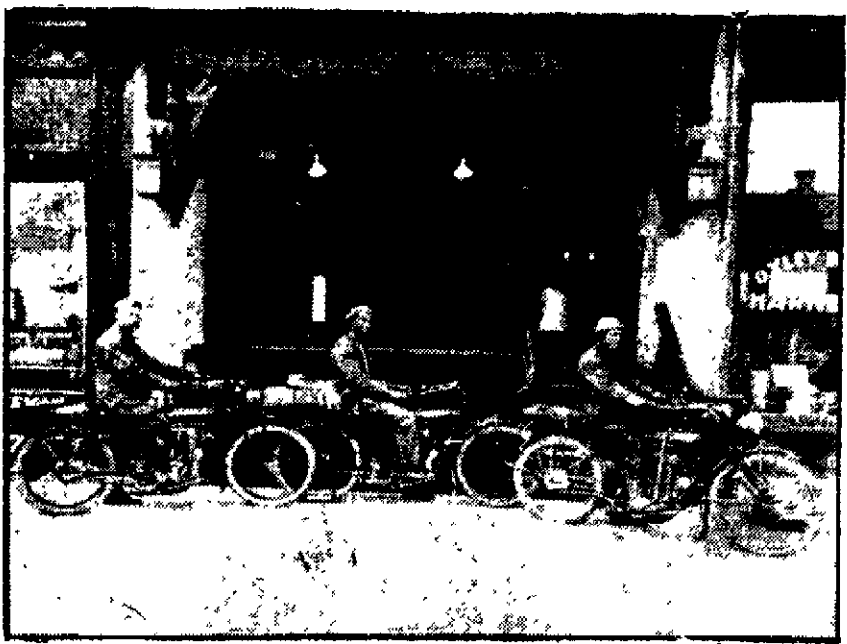

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Calumet, Mich., July 25.—Whether the coming of state troops to the copper country means an end to violence or fresh outbreaks was the chief subject of discussion in Calumet today. Many look for clashes about various shafts despite the policy of the Western Federation of Miners against the use of force by the men.

Troops will be distributed among the mines and kept within easy communication. Brigade headquarters will be in Calumet, troops pitching tents about the armory and adjacent fields. Menominee, Soo, Alpena and Sibley companies are expected before noon. Lower peninsula (Continued on Page 3, Col. 2.)

OHIO ELECTRIC
SUFFERS LOSS OF THOUSANDS

Local officials of the Ohio Electric railway were at a loss Friday to estimate the damage suffered by the Zanesville division of the system by three severe storms of the past ten days. It is known that the cost of rebuilding track and the loss of service will reach many thousand dollars.

Friday, the regular schedules were being observed on the east end of the line after the service had been interrupted by bad washouts on the line near Vanderburg and Holbein. Limited cars were not run while repairs were in progress, but local service was continued. Friday all limited cars were run, and were only about ten minutes behind schedule.

Newark Motorcyclists Ready to Start On 2200 Mile Camping Trip

Last Tuesday, three Newark young men left on a 2,200 mile journey with Helena, Mont., as their objective point. Enroute, the boys will camp where night overtakes them and they are prepared to cook their own meals where mealtime finds them. In the

OFFICER BURKE
POLICE CHIEF

Same Charges Filed Against Patrolman
Which Had Previously Been Heard by Three Courts.

Charges were filed by Police Chief Sheridan Thursday against Patrolman Charles O. Burke, alleging disobedience of orders and drinking while on duty and in uniform.

The chief's charges were brought before Safety Director Wayne Collier and the officer was notified of his suspension when he reported for duty Thursday night.

The charges named in the document filed with the safety director allege that on May 6 Burke refused to obey the order of a superior officer and that on the same date, he entered a saloon while on duty and in uniform and drank intoxicating liquors. Chief Sheridan stated that the offenses charged were the same which were named in the action brought by Director Collier a month or more ago, when Burke was suspended.

Burke has been at work about two weeks following his reinstatement through a decision of common pleas court. Burke appealed the former case to the civil service commission, which sustained Collier and the officer took the case into common pleas court on mandamus proceedings where he won out.

The newly preferred charges will be heard before Director Collier Saturday evening at 7 o'clock.

WILL ISSUE
ORDERS FOR REDUCTION

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, July 25.—Despite Senatorial criticism of the proposed reduction in Parcel Post rates and the increase in the size of packages, Postmaster General Burleson today announced he would issue the final orders at once putting the changes in effect August 15. The announcement came after the wisdom of making the changes had been subjected to a searching review before the Senate postoffice committee in the presence of Postmaster General.

Chairman Clark, of the interstate commerce commission explaining why the commission had sanctioned the proposed changes said he believed the postmaster general had ample power under the law to make the changes.

"I am convinced that the postoffice department ought to, and will extend the service until it will carry packages up to 100 pounds," he added.

SING SING

Sixty Desperate Prisoners
Taken to State
Prison at Auburn

TRAIN HEAVILY GUARDED

As It Was Feared Friends
Might Attempt Rescue—
Bedlam Breaks Loose at Prison and Night of Din Prevails.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Ossining, N. Y., July 25.—Sixty convicts, the dregs of the New York City criminal class, were taken one by one from their cells in Sing Sing prison today and placed aboard a train for the state prison at Auburn.

Recent riots in Sing Sing caused the warden to take no chances. Each convict was heavily handcuffed and shackled and then chained to his place in the railroad car which had been brought inside the prison enclosure. A hundred prison guards did this work while in the state armory not far away from the prison a company of naval militia waited for a call to protect the town in case the transfer of convicts resulted in a prison mutiny.

There was little sleep in the prison last night. At intervals some of the prisoners would let out a howl and bang on their cell doors. The din would increase as it was taken up and down the lines of cells and continued until the angry convicts had worn themselves out. It was scarcely daylight when the weary night shift of guards was relieved by the keepers who had charge of transferring the second-term men to Auburn.

When the first convicts were brought out to the car, Sing Sing suddenly awoke. More than a thousand prisoners rushed to their cell windows and cursed and yelled and howled at the keepers.

The task of the prison authorities was by no means over when they got the prisoners aboard the car. On the train to which this car was attached they expected to find friends and relatives of the convicts and threats had been made that attempts to release the second-term men might be looked for anywhere between Ossining and Auburn. For this reason there were almost as many guards on the train as there were convicts.

The town of Ossining last night and this morning was full of men breathing vengeance against prison authorities. After he has rid the prison of second-term men to be transferred to Auburn, Warden Clancy expects to have no more trouble keeping order.

The rest of the second-term convicts are to be sent away tomorrow. To them and a few of their most desperate sympathizers the warden attributes the mutinies that broke out at Sing Sing this week, the two fires in the prison shops, and the attempt to murder a negro convict whom the mutineers regard as a traitor.

Cincinnati, July 25.—Play between two boys had a fatal ending today for 13-year-old Raymond Woerner, 3107 Burrill avenue. The lad was accidentally shot in the left breast above the heart, the wound causing his death within an hour. The only witness to the shooting was Edward Rolke, playmate of the victim. He told the police that a toy rifle, which the Woerner boy had purchased but a day or two ago, was accidentally upset and discharged.

TRIPLE CRIME AT DETROIT.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Detroit, Mich., July 25.—Dean Davison, a paving foreman employed by the department of public works, today shot and killed his mother-in-law, Mrs. Caroline Bittner, shot and wounded his wife and then fired two bullets into his own head, dying an hour later. It is believed his wife will recover. A divorce suit instituted by Mrs. Davison is pending in the local court.

Washington, July 25.—Julian Hawthorne and Dr. William J. Morton, serving a year's sentence in the Atlanta penitentiary for misuse of the mails, have been recommended for parole by the parole board, and the question of their release is now under consideration by Attorney General McReynolds.

Mat Factory Burned in Big Sing Sing Prison Fire.

The mat factory was the building in which the big fire within the walls of Sing Sing started Tuesday afternoon, while 1,400 convicts howled in fear of a general fire. Warden Clancy will make an investigation to learn the cause of the fire. It is also probable that he will record to the Parole Board of New York State the shortening of the sentences of some of the convicts who did valiant service in fighting flames and thus helping to save the prison.

American Ambassador To Mexico Arrived In New York This Morning

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, July 25.—Henry Lane Wilson, American ambassador to Mexico, arrived today on his mission to discuss Mexican conditions with President Wilson and the Department of State.

The steamer Mexico, on which he sailed from Havana, July 22, was off Sandy Hook, at the entrance to New York harbor at 10 a. m. Mr. Wilson is expected to reach Washington tonight.

Ambassador Wilson said that he was opposed to sending a commission to Mexico to try to mediate the warring factions. He did not say what remedy he had to offer for the situation. He declared that he must reserve any opinion of this kind until he reached Washington and saw the President.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, July 25.—Henry Lane Wilson, American ambassador to Mexico, returned to the United States today prepared to place before President Wilson and the state department his suggestion for the straightening of affairs in Mexico. These suggestions do not include, he said, any idea of sending an American commission into Mexico to offer mediation.

Mr. Wilson opposed also a proposition that a tri-partite commission, made up of representatives of the United States and two South America republic to bring about peace among the warring factions.

While declining to enter into an extended discussion of any plans or to offer any remedy of his own. Mr. Wilson characterized the mediation plan as "all rot."

The proposal for a tri-partite commission, Mr. Wilson said, it was not a feasible one. "That is a plan of John Barrett, director of the international bureau of American republics," he said.

"That's all politics and it is a theory that exploded long ago to the satisfaction of the state department."

He declared to bear out this charge, that Mrs. Madero after her husband's death, had published letters she had written to the American ambassador. The files at the American embassy in Mexico he declared show this.

Mr. Wilson discussed conditions in Mexico today, declaring American's lives and property are in danger from rebels and bandits.

"If the government fails there will be chaos," he said, "although at the present time the Huerta government controls all but two of the states and should soon be in absolute command of the whole country."

Mr. Wilson added "I have been blamed for a great deal, but if I had not intervened after the bombing of the City of Mexico the city would have been in flames with a tremendous loss of life and destruction of property. I brought Diaz and Huerta together. That was a thing that prevented a terrible disaster."

Steamers Collide In Fog At Midnight and
One Is Badly Damaged

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Vineyard Haven, Mass., July 25.—The freighter Millinocket, from Stockton, Me., for New York arrived here at sunrise today in a sinking condition. It had collided at midnight during a fog with the Persian, a passenger steamer bound from Philadelphia for Boston.

A wireless message received from the Persian stated that her bow had been damaged.

The Millinocket's flight into Vineyard Haven was an exciting race against the water which was rapidly climbing upward in her hold.

As she turned East Chop, at the entrance to the harbor she was well down by the stern and when she anchored her rudder touched bottom. Her stern also settled, but the bulkheads in the engine room and forward hold kept her bow afloat.

The Millinocket rounded Cape Cod early last evening and soon afterward ran into a thick bank of fog. At midnight, just before reaching Pollock Rip lightship, the Persian suddenly loomed out.

Neither vessel had time to stop or veer. The Persian was heading diagonally toward the Millinocket so that the blow was a glancing one. The Millinocket was struck on the starboard side, aft of amidships.

The sea rushed into the hole torn in the Millinocket and her pumps were started at once. The Persian in the meantime was lost to sight in the fog.

The Millinocket proceeded for a port under full steam, with all her pumps going, but the water in her afterhold gained steadily.

WILL PUT MULHALL
ON RACK

House Probers May Give Attorneys Chance to Cross-Question

5,000 LETTERS ON FILE

Many of Which Have Been Introduced Into the Senate
Record—Asked for Interview
With President Taft.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, July 25.—Martin M. Mulhall's story of his lobbying activities for the National Association of Manufacturers as unfolded before the Senate committee is to be allowed to stand practically without cross-questioning from Democratic members of the committee. Senators Nelson and Cummins, who yesterday began a severe questioning of the witness upon many of his statements, probably will continue to demand more detailed statements upon his letters as they are introduced in the record but the Democratic members, Senators Overman, Reed and Walsh, expect to let the Mulhall story stand principally upon the evidence presented in the 5,000 or more letters.

Mulhall will go before the house lobby committee early next week and it is expected that there he will be subjected to a rigid examination as to the charges contained in his mass of correspondence that members of the house were his close associates in political campaign work and in efforts to head off labor legislation.

The senate also has indicated that it will not permit a general cross examination of Mulhall by attorneys or officers of the manufacturers and those officials will attempt to make Mulhall defend his statements before the house committee next week.

Mulhall went to Massachusetts in August, 1910, and wrote General Manager Bird of the Manufacturers of conference with Senator Lodge and Charles L. Hatfield, "chairman of the state committee."

"Senator Lodge pays us all kinds of compliments for the work we are doing and I know we will have his aid more actively than ever before in the next campaign," wrote Mulhall. In other letters that month Mulhall wrote, "through our efforts we have beaten the Honorable T. D. Nicholas of the Tenth Pennsylvania and we also have beaten notorious George A. Pearre of injunction fame in the Sixth Maryland."

On August 30, Mulhall wrote President Taft asking for an interview for Bird and himself.

"It will be a great help to have a number of the leaders of the Manufacturing Association in touch with the leaders of our party throughout the country in the present crisis," the letter ran. Mulhall swore he received a reply from C. D. Norton, the president's secretary, arranging the interview or Monday afternoon, September 12 at Beverly. Senator Nelson questioned Mulhall closely about items in the expense accounts which frequently showed $20 amounts "paid to two workers" for services in the Sixth New Jersey district. Mulhall swore he dealt with a man named "Feeney", and that he paid him the money in cash, usually meeting him in a Philadelphia hotel. The items appeared almost every week.

October 5, 1910, Mulhall wrote former Senator Foraker about his talk with President Taft, saying he had submitted names of men who would help in the campaign.

"He seemed to scrutinize the list very closely," Mulhall wrote, "and talked as if John H. Taylor of East Liverpool and H. M. Hanna were not enthusiastic friends of his."

"He was greatly pleased with the work I told him had been done in Massachusetts and other states, and advised me to inform our people to do everything we possibly could to keep in touch with leaders of the congressional committee so that we might be able to help in close congressional districts."

CONDITION OF
MRS. PANKHURST
VERY SERIOUS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, July 25.—The consulting physicians in attendance on Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, who was yesterday released from Holloway jail, take such a serious view of her condition that they ordered today the immediate resort to a transfusion of blood.

Mrs. Pankhurst weakness and inanition from the effects of her hunger and thirst strikes are so extreme that great apprehension is felt as to the outcome.

"She could be no worse," was the statement made by one of the attendants today.

BIG LEAGUERS GET DAY'S REST

New York, July 25.—Not since the season's early weeks has such a baseball hiatus occurred as that of yesterday when not a single major league game was played and minor league contests in the east were conspicuous for their rarity. It was an off day anyway for the American League, the Western teams being on their way east to open new series. Four games were scheduled in the National League, but rain prevented all of them, as it did numerous minor league engagements on the day's program.

So general was the rain in major league eastern territory that no attempts were made to start games in New York, Brooklyn and Philadelphia, while in Boston the Braves and the Reds played less than an inning when the downpour came. It was the last day of the current series in each city, and in consequence double headers are likely to be arranged for to be played during the next eastern invasion of the western continent.

Pittsburg had to leave New York without a single victory, the Giants having taken three straight in Boston. Cincinnati took two out of three, while Chicago had to be content with one in three in Philadelphia. Brooklyn and St. Louis divided the two games played in the former city.

The eastern clubs in the National are on their way west, but only one game—Philadelphia at Pittsburg—is scheduled for today. In the American League Chicago will open in Boston, Cleveland in New York, St. Louis in Washington and Detroit in Philadelphia.

After losing to Jeff, Fitzsimmons had knocked out Gus Ruhlin and Tom Sharkey, and in the interval between his two fights with Fitz, Jeffries had knocked out Jim Corbett and defeated Ruhlin and others. LABOR DAY GALA EVENT FOR NEWARK

Splendid and Gorgeous Parades,
Splendid Music and an Excellent
Program of Events.

Preparations for the celebration of Labor Day are maturing rapidly. The several committees are hustling and everything is in fine shape.

The labor organizations of neighboring cities have been invited and a large delegation of friends with them. The indications are that this year's celebration will be the most successful and largest attended gathering ever held in the city.

The general committee having the matter in charge is as follows:

E. M. Streit, chairman.
Chas. Roesser, secretary and treasurer.

E. H. Franklin, solicitor and collector.

Advertising and Printing, Charles Roesser, E. H. Franklin.

Music, W. M. Morgan, A. W. Litten, Nick Emmert.

Privileges, W. S. Coen, A. J. Bingham, W. A. Archer, Chas. Roesser.

Amusements, Frank Peterman, David Demins, W. W. Litten, Chas. Gregg.

A monster parade will usher in the day's festivities, participated in by all the locals of the city, enlivened by bands of music and novel and gorgeous features. To encourage a healthy competition the following prizes will be awarded:

Two prizes for the largest percentage of attendance of local membership; one prize for the neatest and most attractive appearance.

In addition to the moving parade a dazzling and glittering caravan of original and amusing fantasies will appear in the afternoon. Valuable prizes will be hung up for this event.

The committee also has under consideration some entirely new and novel free attractions for the entertainment of the multitude. Later notices of these will appear.

The hearty co-operation and encouragement of the business men and citizens generally are acknowledged and highly appreciated by the committee and largely contribute to the success of the occasion.

The committee meets every Friday evening at headquarters over the Old Homestead on West Main street.

Any desired information may be obtained by calling upon or addressing the chairman or secretary of the general committee.

MILITIAMEN

sula companies will arrive during the day and tomorrow. Houghton company arrived last night. The troops will act under the direction of Sheriff Crane.

Captain Mead, company A, engineers, who had his company under orders at the armory all night and Houghton (company G), are ready at a moment's notice to respond to the sheriff's orders. Large numbers of strikers gathered about Number Two Calumet and Hecla shaft this morning but made no demonstration other than letting out an occasional yell. They threatened, however, to go to the Superior boiler house of the Calumet and Hecla and draw the fires but so far have made no attempt to do this. A move in that direction would promptly bring out the militia company. General closing of saloons is expected if more violence occurs.

The Western Federation of Miners is holding out for a conference with the mine managers but this it is said, will not be granted. General Manager McNaughton of the Calumet and Hecla, which also controls the Osceola, Tamarack, Ahmeek, Alouez, Lasalle, Isle Royale and Superior, has so far declined to be quoted as to the terms of the companies.

It is believed that while troops are here the mines will be reopened. It is said most of the non-union men are willing to go to work if the shafts are guarded.

RUSHING TROOPS TO COPPER MINES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Lansing, Mich., July 25.—It was announced in the Adjutant General's office here this morning that practically every company in the Michigan National Guard was either on its way to the copper mine strike district or would entrain as soon as cars are available in response to the governor's orders late yesterday afternoon. It was expected that more than 2,000 state militiamen would be in the strike zone before tomorrow night. Several companies are already reported there.

Considerable delay was caused in Detroit and some of the other larger cities in the state in getting the troops away because of lack of transportation facilities. All of the companies spent the night in their armories, however, and were ready today to board the trains just as soon as they were made up.

Brigadier General B. L. Abbey, head of the state militia, left last night for Calumet, where he will take charge of the situation.

GIRL BRIDE IS SENT TO HOME; GROOM IN JAIL

Although she has been formally married by a clergyman and possesses her marriage certificate, Mrs. Lucinda Priest of Hanover dare not live with her husband. She is a ward of the county and now an inmate of the Licking County Children's Home, where she must stay until she becomes 18. She is now 14, according to the finding of Judge Robbins Hunter in juvenile court.

There is grave question as to whether the marriage contract actually exists, since the license was procured by misrepresentation and the girl is under marriageable age. Judge Hunter in disposing of the case, has not declared the contract annulled, but says the annulment should be a separate matter of court procedure if it is to be done.

Meanwhile the youthful husband has been turned over to the Children's Home under her maiden name, Lucinda Miles. Her mother, who is charged with contributing to her daughter's delinquency by misrepresenting her age to the license clerk, was committed to the county jail for thirty days.

Lewis Priest, the husband, was sentenced to twenty days, on the same charge.

CAMBRIDGE WINS GOLF TOURNAMENT FROM LOCAL CLUB

The Cambridge Golfers gave the Licking Country Club enthusiasts a drubbing in the tournament at the Licking Country Club grounds Thursday afternoon, the visitors winning by a score of 32 to 9. Messrs. Hollander, Fitzgibbon, Webb, Mosteller and Norris were the only Newark men able to score points for their club.

The Cambridge visitors arrived shortly before noon after experiencing considerable difficulty in reaching Newark. It was necessary to take some automobiles to Zanesville where some of the men came to Newark via the interurban.

The visiting players were entertained at luncheon before the game and at dinner afterwards. Captain A. H. Halsey, president of the Country Club was an honored guest at dinner.

The Newark club will meet Cambridge again Oct. 16 at Cambridge, when the local players hope for sweet revenge for Thursday's defeat.

K. OF C. PLAYERS TO PLAY UTICA TEAM ON SUNDAY

The fast Knights of Columbus baseball team of Newark will go to Utica Sunday where they will clash with first team of that place. This is the first game between the local boys and Utica this season and it should prove to be a fast game as both teams have a reputation for speed. Manager F. J. Cannon is contemplating chartering several automobiles in which the local boys will make the trip.

NEWARK BOYS FINE WORK ON RIFLE RANGE

Number Made Excellent Scores
—Company G Applauded on Dress Parade.

(By George G. Whitehead)
Camp Perry, July 25.—(Hurons of war floated about the camp today when it was apised abroad that Major General Leonard Wood had received a wire from Secretary of War Garrison asking how soon the Ohio National Guard could be ready to go to the Mexican border. Although the men are not inclined to think that they will get a call to real service for the government, they are much interested in every word from Washington, and the word goes out the Fourth Regiment will be ready for action at a moment's notice.

When the boys of Company G took their second turn on the rifle range today they imagined they could see Mexicans instead of inanimate targets along the edge of the lake, and at drill tomorrow they will cross imaginary deserts and plains along the national border.

In target practice Corporal McCaulsky surprised the camp with his fine shooting. He made the high average of 60 out of a possible score of 75. Corporal Guy Kivler also shot remarkably well, and the Mexicans had better look sharp if they would save their heads. The work-out today was on the 300 and 500-yard ranges. While part of Company G shot, the other half worked in the target pits.

The Newark boys were greatly pleased last night when at parade their company was one of the three out of twenty applauded. Company M, of Chillicothe and Company B of Columbus were the other soldier groups praised openly. Capt. Priest had his men drilling in great form and not a herring did they make. Participating in the evening feature were the three battalions of the Fourth regiment and the two provisional battalions, including companies from Cincinnati, Hillsboro, Manchester, Lebanon and Batavia. There was a drizzling rain about mess time and it was feared that the parade could not be held, but the elements were favorable to the occasion and G had a chance to shine.

Company G Notes.
The camp was visited yesterday by George Deedim former cook with Company G. No one else from Newark has been here this week to visit the G boys. Last year the mayor, chief of police and others were here.

Capt. Priest has redeemed himself on the horse-riding stunt by taming an animal Thursday that even Major Knauss was afraid to tackle.

Twelve members of the Newark company are visiting camp for the first time. They think home is nothing like this.

Sergeant George Deedim of Newark paid the boys a pleasant visit of several days.

Private Lawrence Parish was honored with appointment as Colonel's orderly, one night recently.

Lieut. Stauffer is kept busy evading a newspaper photographer who has been after his photograph for publication.

Sergeant Arthur Beasley was acting senior sergeant of the guard detail Wednesday.

During the Fourth Regiment band concert last night Company G entertained the natives, between times, by giving a few Newark yells, one of which sounded like: Who are the boys, who are the boys, who are the boys?

We're the boys of Company G. First in war, first in peace. First in the hands of the Newark police.

Fred Youse had charge of the Morse code signal work Thursday, and the company musician, Robert Brown, appears each evening with the regimental band, under the direction of Chief Musician, W. A. Sands of Columbus.

PLANNING FOR TENNIS TOURNAY ON "Y" COURTS

Attendance at the Y. M. C. A. tennis courts in North Second street is increasing daily. All day long the courts are in use and this healthy exercise is enjoyed by many.

The association has secured use of the grounds gratis from the Buckingham sisters and members have paid all expenses of putting the grounds in shape with an amount realized from the dues. There are two courts, both full sized, equipped with the best apparatus. A series of tournaments are now in contemplation by Physical Director L. B. Roberts but have not yet been definitely arranged.

MILLIONAIRE

GETTING BUSY

The latest plan of the Millionaire Tax Dodgers is to hire men to peddle their referendum petitions against the Warnes and Kilpatrick bills. A Cleveland agent of the so-called Equity Association in Newark yesterday was offering men $3.50 a day to peddle these petitions to obtain signatures. The Millionaire Tax Dodgers are certainly becoming desperate. They know that if the Warnes law is not defeated by their referendum petitions they will not be able to dodge paying their just share of the taxes by keeping their millions from being assessed.

There is absolutely nothing in the wild rantings of the High Protection Republican Senators that has not been said a thousand times (and said better) during the past forty years of tariff debating. What would be to the point is an explanation why American steel and iron products, cotton cloths, leather goods, meat, grain and other farm products need protection when they are sold in all the free markets of the world in competition with those of all other countries. The Chinese and Japanese perils loom up terribly in debate, but they have no terrors for American locomotive builders and rail-makers when they send their wares to China and Japan. The Stand-patter explanation of these phenomena would be interesting, but we don't get it. The Republican Senators persist in thrashing old straw as if we did not have a surfeit of this sort of campaign literature, and the Progressives are quite as hopelessly out of date.

Mr. Bryan says his farm is only an expense to him. Many others also have found that the telephone is not a good implement to raise corn with.

Judging by the lobby investigation, the voters of Maine can be greatly enlightened as to their duty by the judicious use of a little whiskey.

THE CRIME OF FORGED PETITIONS

The Cleveland Leader, well known Republican journal, makes frank admission of the justice of the Attorney General's opinion as to a forced and fraudulent petition, and says so in the following unequivocal language:

"The Attorney General of the state believes that the certification of a fraudulent and forced petition, under the initiative and referendum law, is a felony punishable by fine and also by imprisonment in the penitentiary for terms of from three to ten years. It is to be hoped that this opinion will be supported and confirmed by the highest judicial authorities, for there is undoubtedly need of making any form of wrong-doing connected with the election machinery of the state as dangerous to criminals as it is odious to all right-thinking citizens."

"Under the next system of so-called direct legislation, fraud in connection with initiative and referendum petitions is similar to fraud in primary elections. It is an effort to corrupt and pervert the currents of government at their source. It is dishonest and demoralizing in every sense. To tolerate such abuse of the new system would degrade the state and taint every form of law-making and the political atmosphere of Ohio."

Some idea of Great Britain's belated efforts to do justice by Ireland may be gathered from Secretary Bland's statement that he will need $300,000,000 more, in addition to $625,000,000 already expended, to carry out the Land Purchase acts of Parliament, by which a tenant is enabled to buy the land which he cultivates. The expenditure of nearly a billion dollars for such a purpose in such a small country as Ireland is a staggering performance. If with the acquisition of the land Ireland also secures Home Rule through the bill that is now pending in Parliament the woes of that long-oppressed and unfortunate island will seem at last to be at an end.

It appears that the Wilson girls know how to make over their own dresses, but with these big state dinners to cook in the hot kitchen, probably they can't do much sewing now.

It must seem pretty dull to our Mexican Ambassador to get back into a country where they don't have a new president every few weeks.

No matter by what devious ways the impecunious youth may take his best girl walking, they always seem to come out in front of some soda fountain.

From the character of the stuff the magazines print in summer nowadays, the old time love story seems to be rejected as heavy literature.

Cats
There is many kinds of cats, the chief kinds being, first, malteez cats, 2d, kittens, 3d, tom cats and 4th, cats own the back fence which dont belong to anybody. If you want to spring a good joke awn sumboddy about a cat, say, How do you make a malteez krawss, and wen they say, How, you say, Tred awn its tale. If they dont laff you no they herd it befor, awn akkount of it being a pritty old joak.

Cats are not as good as dawws for 1 reezins, first, because they havent got as much sense, 2d, because they dont want to play any moar as soon as they stop being kittens, 3d, because they ont want to be tickled and as soon as you start to pat them they are libel to scratch you, and 4th, because they dont no as much.

No mattir how good of a hoam a cat has got, wen nite kums it wood rathir be awn the back tents than anyware elts.

Wen a cat makes a noize at nite, may be thinking its slinging, it sounds worse than any uthir anibol in the world, except a baby, wich sounds awnlost just the same, and the moar things you thro at it out of the windo the moar it seems to think sure, applauding the sawing and want an enkov.

Uneven Shoulders.
Uneven shoulders make tummy a girl fear to wear a ballroom dress or low backed gown, because it makes this defect painfully conspicuous. For such corrective exercises are needed to remedy the trouble. Here is a hint that will prove valuable if persisted in. Stand erect with the arms of the lower shoulder raised above the head. Grasp a heavy flannel by the other hand and let this arm hang at the side. Now push up vigorously with the raised arm and at the same time press down with the hanging arm, keeping the body and head still and doing all the movement with the shoulder muscles.

Uncle Walt's Philosophy

Inefficient Men

We see sad throngs, on weary feet, parading every city street, no money in their jeans. The stern philosopher upsets, and views the crowd, and throws some fits, and dreadsly complains. "There's something wrong when such things be; our government's a fake," says he; "if things were rightly shaped, there'd be no crowds of unemployed, whose stomachs are an aching void, who are in tatters draped." Reformers sound their clarion calls, and snort and tear their overalls, demanding this and that; the hungry masses are a shame, they say, and then they place the blame on some poor plutocrat. Say, did you ever hire a man to wield a spade or sprinkling can, to put up ice or hay? And did you ever watch the out just monkey round and fool and loaf, and soldier half a day? Yes, you have hired two dozen skates to mow the lawn or fix the gates or mend the tugs and hames; and well you know they are not worth the powder that from off the earth would blow their useless frames. The idle man would idle be if lands were made for such as he, and laws to guard his rights; he'd so the same old useless ways, and evermore he'd waste his days and rush the can at nights.

Daddy's Bedtime

Why Brutus, the Story — Haughty Lion,
Looked Pleasant.

They Took Some Lovely Pictures.

THE little boy next door had a new camera, one of the tiny ones that cost so little and give little folks so much pleasure.

And the little boy next door had that afternoon taken Jack and Evelyn's pictures as they sat on their own doorstep. Great was the joy of Jack and Evelyn. They told daddy all about it.

"Did the little boy tell you to 'please look pleasant' when he snapped the picture?" daddy asked.

"No; maybe he forgot that," Jack suggested, nodding to Evelyn.

"That is a very serious thing to forget," daddy went on. "Why, they even asked Brutus to look pleasant when he had his picture taken."

"Was was Brutus?" the children inquired.

"Brutus," daddy explained, "is a handsome lion who lives in the Cincinnati zoo. Every one admires him, and he is perhaps a little vain of the attention he gets. Like many beauties, Brutus is very changeable."

"Though the lion's pet keeper one day came in with the moving picture photographer and coaxed and prodded him to the front of the box where the light was good, they couldn't make Brutus look pleasant."

"You see, they wanted the picture of a good natured, not of a grouchy lion."

"Does he never look pleasant?" the camera man asked in despair.

"Yes, indeed," the keeper replied, a little offended. "Brutus is really a very pleasant sort of lion in his own way, but he doesn't like to be made to do things he doesn't want to."

"Well, when does he seem to be most pleased?" he asked the keeper.

"When he is getting his dinner, sir," the keeper replied.

"The moving picture man looked pleased himself when he heard this. Maybe he likes his own dinner."

"Then let's feed him," he cried.

"So the keeper got a big piece of raw beef and, placing it on the end of a stick, held it out to the lion."

"A lovely expression spread over the face of Brutus. He wondered why his friend didn't poke the meat into his cage. He wasn't used to being fooled."

"When the meat stayed outside the cage the lion reached out a paw to grab it, and then the camera man took some fine pictures."

"When he got through and while Brutus was gobbling down his piece of beef the camera man said that a good many people besides lions only look pleasant when they are thinking about their dinners."

Both gentlemen have the reputation of being skilled chefs and the feast which they prepared for their guests will long be remembered by those present. Friday Mr. Hinger's daughter, Miss Anna, and a party of her young lady friends were entertained at a spring chicken dinner. Fishing and boat riding were indulged in and all enjoyed an excellent time. Sunday a number of visiting patrolmen from Columbus, together with several theatrical friends of Mr. Fitzgerald will be entertained at the island.

On Thursday afternoon and evening Mr. and Mrs. Murray Swartz celebrated their silver wedding anniversary at their home in South Pine street. A six o'clock course dinner was served to the immediate family and the following guests: Misses Mable Hanover of Johnstown, Ohio, and Ida Schenk of this city, and Messrs. Charles Gordon and Ralph Miller of Cleveland. The hosts were pleased with many beautiful gifts.

Miss Marjorie Lawhead of West Main street is entertaining a party of girl friends with a luncheon at the Moundbuilders Park this afternoon.

The following invitations have been received by a large number of friends in Newark and at Buckeye Lake: Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Graef request the pleasure of your company at a Dance

Small cards are attached to the invitations announcing a dinner preceding the dance to be given by Miss Esther at six o'clock at the Esterdale cottage.

Mrs. W. L. Prout of East Main street on Thursday afternoon entertained with a party of friends at her home. The list included, besides the hostess, Dorothy Baldwin of Columbus, Marjorie Lawhead, Juliet Beswood, Martha Fulton and Mary Sherwood Wright.

The following people made up a dinner party at Shell Beach, Buckeye Lake, Thursday evening: Messrs. Rosch, John M. Ankele, George Taylor, Walter Crossman, Joseph Bader, Edward McDonald, William Suamp and J. B. Dickinson.

FIRE DAMAGE IS BEING REPAIRED; NEW MACHINERY

Workmen are now engaged in repairing the Hulseizer mill which was damaged by fire and water two weeks ago. The building has been re-roofed and the burned timbers in the third story have been renewed. The work is progressing rapidly and it is hoped to have the mill in readiness by the second week in September.

After making a closer examination of the machines damaged by fire and water, it was found that fully a dozen would have to be replaced by entirely new machinery. Practically all the others will have to be dismantled and cleaned, repaired and generally overhauled.

Much of the spouting which conveys the grain and products to the various floors in the process of milling, was found to be in such shape that cleaning was impossible and it will be replaced with new.

LABORER FALLS FROM CAR; LEG BADLY CRUSHED

George Jesparrrs, about 45 years old, an Italian laborer employed by the Pennsylvania railroad company, fell from a freight car in the local yards Thursday afternoon, fifteen minutes before quitting time. He sustained injuries which may result in his death.

When he fell, he landed on the track and the car wheels passed over his right leg. The member was so badly crushed that amputation was necessary. He also sustained injuries about the back.

Baxter & Bradley's ambulance rushed the injured man to the Sanitarium where Drs. Shirer and Davis performed the operation amputating the right leg.

Friday morning Jesparrrs' condition was said to be fair, though hospital attendants declared that it was too early to predict the outcome of the injury.

SECOND OF THE SEMI-MONTHLY B. & O. PAY DAYS

The second of the semi-monthly pay required by the new Ohio law will be made by the B. & O. early next week, said officials Friday. No notification of the exact date of the arrival of checks has been received, however. The second visit of the Pennsylvania pay train within the month was made here Thursday. The first was on July 11, paying out for the last half of June. This pay was for the first half of July.

Officials of the B. & O. have adopted the semi-monthly pay scheme over their entire system, and are not continuing it to this state alone, where it has been made compulsory by law. Officials scout the practicality of the plan from the workers' standpoint.

Following out what is said to have been a general retrenchment order, the shop force of the B. & O. has been materially reduced, but it is claimed that trainmen are being kept very busy with heavy freight movements and a notable increase in summer passenger traffic.

SECREC Y AT CONFERENCE OF MEDIATORS

Associated Press Telegram. New York, July 25.—Secrecy invests the conferences of the federal mediators and the railroad managers, conductors and trainmen so closely that little is known regarding what progress has been made toward an agreement upon the matters to be arbitrated between the railroads and the men. When the conferences were resumed today the belief was that the railroads were demanding of the men a compromise by which the roads would be permitted to submit some at least, of their own grievances to arbitration.

The railroad managers say that public opinion is beginning to force the men to come part way to meet them in this attempt to adjust their differences.

After a conference with representatives of the trainmen and conductors, the mediators this afternoon declared that the situation had reached a critical stage. The board did nothing to explain this statement.

Later in the afternoon the board again met the railroad managers.

KING AND QUEEN TRAVEL INCognito TO COWES REGATTA

Associated Press Telegram. Paris, July 25.—King Alfonso and Queen Victoria of Spain arrived here today traveling incognito on their way to the Cowes regatta. Hawaiian Duke's Water Records May Be Accepted Vouchers for the world's swimming records established recently by Duke Kahanamoku in Hawaii are on their way to the Amateur Athletic Union, and confidence is felt at headquarters that they will prove flawless. It is the case, the times made by the Honolulu paddler—109 yards straightaway in 55 1-5 seconds and 229 yards in 2 minutes 34 2-5 seconds—will be officially accepted as American standards, and the home talent will have to improve on them to obtain recognition.

The decision of the authorities to O. K. the performances made in the South Sea Islands does away with the hope of seeing a native of this country credited with the classic figures, for there is no sprinter at present thought able to travel either distance under the duke's marks.

OVERHEARD on OLYMPUS by Barbara Boyd

Circe Enlightens Diogenes

HELLO, Diogenes," called Circe, as she saw the misogynist passing in the distance, "come and say how-do, won't you?"

Diogenes reluctantly obeyed. He hadn't much of an opinion of Circe. "Why don't you clean up your lantern?" she inquired, as he sat down beside her. "For that matter, why don't you get one of those new electric flashlights. You might be more successful in your search, if you had a better light."

"Oh, no," replied Diogenes, morosely. "My quest is hopeless anyway. In fact, I suppose I am foolish to keep it up. I never expect to find an honest man. I'm just wasting oil."

Circe laughed, her golden laugh, that never failed to warm men's blood. But Diogenes sat staring moodily ahead of him. He did not even seem to hear it. Circe regarded him curiously a minute, then she said:

"Well, you are in the same class with the man looking for work and praying he won't find it. Don't you know that we have discovered nowadays that law governs such things, and that what you expect, you get? Or, in your case, I guess it would be what you don't expect, you don't get."

"What kind of reasoning do you call that?" asked Diogenes. "That's the law of attraction and repulsion working out in the mental world, the same as in the physical."

Diogenes lost interest in the distant landscape, and turned and regarded Circe with some curiosity. "Whoever would expect to hear you talking like that," he said.

"Oh, women nowadays aren't like they used to be," replied Circe, nonchalantly. "There aren't many sciences, or isms, or ologies, they don't know something about. You are quite behind the time, Di. Your carrying that old lantern instead of an electric lamp shows it. It doesn't pay to be a person of one idea, especially when that idea is a pessimistic one. If you should find an honest man, you would not only receive the shock of your life, but your occupation would be gone. You would have no other interests to fall back upon."

"I guess I needn't worry," replied Diogenes.

"Yonder comes Lincoln," exclaimed Circe, scanning a tall, gaunt individual in the distance. "Just wait a few minutes and you can blow out your lantern, and return to private life, for an honest man will fall right over you."

"Excuse me," said Diogenes, hastily rising, and grabbing his lantern. "I must be going." And he strode away as fast as dignity would permit, in the direction opposite to that from which Lincoln was coming.

"A close shave," he said to himself, as he struck into a by-path. "I must be more careful in the future. Women always are the undoing of men. If I hadn't been talking with her, he wouldn't have crept up on me like he did." He mopped his brow nervously. "My position is getting a bit precarious. To be sure, I could make a stir by declaring I had found my man, but the interest would die out in a couple of days,—there are so many sensations sprung all the time, now,—and then I'd completely drop out of the public eye. No, I'll still hold to my contention." And turning the wick of his lantern still lower, he plunged into the underbrush and continued his search for an honest man.

Grandma Used Sage Tea To Darken Faded, Gray Hair

Mixed With Sulphur It Makes Hair Soft, Beautiful; Cures Dandruff.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But the brewing at home is messy and out of date. Nowadays skilled chemists do this better than ourselves. By asking at any drug store for the ready-to-use product called "Wyle's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Some druggists make their own, which is usually too sticky, so insist upon getting Wyle's, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says his customers insist on Wyle's Sage and Sulphur, because, they say, it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. Do this at night and by morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant.

Wisdom from Washington

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, July 25.—[Special.]—Women opposed to suffrage find that they are working at a disadvantage, more particularly in trying to prevent the passage of a resolution for an amendment to the constitution allowing women to vote. They find that many senators and members of the house are earnestly and outspokenly in favor of women suffrage.

The wives of senators and representatives do not hesitate to proclaim their belief in women suffrage. But senators and representatives who oppose suffrage do not want "to get mixed up in the controversy." They do not want to invite opposition from the suffragists in their home states and districts. Nor will they permit their wives to become identified with the anti-suffrage movement for the same reason.

Other Handicaps.

The anti also feel they have other handicaps. They are obliged to be "antfs," which in itself is not a good argument with which to go before congress. Then they cannot be so pronounced, so militant, so manlike in marching, proclamations, etc., and consequently are not creating as much notoriety or making themselves felt in any such way as their sisters who are out for votes.

There was a time when any one would have laughed at the idea of an amendment permitting women to vote ever passing congress. And now, although it requires a two-thirds vote in each house, there is quite a likely possibility of its passing before the world grows much older.

Gave the Senate a Treat.

One thing which the Bryan-Bristow affair accomplished and which must be placed to the credit of that episode: It gave the senate a treat. Not only the senate, but the people in the galleries enjoyed the privilege of hearing and seeing James Hamilton Lewis in action. "Seeing" is used advisedly, for simply in hearing Lewis without seeing him one loses half of the real entertainment that goes with a "Jim Ham" performance. Lewis is the greatest word juggler that ever appeared in the senate. Rhythmic sentences pour forth like a waterfall; adjectives galore are used to enforce every idea. Sometimes the ideas get lost in a maze of words.

Lewis gets out, but the listener is often lost in a labyrinth, from which he emerges long after the performance closes. It seems as though Lewis took hundreds of words and tossed them in the air, kept them dancing from his ten finger tips and from the points of his brilliant whiskers. With smiles, perfect gestures, with immaculate adornment, he is easily the most picturesque and interesting figure in the senate when he is speaking.

And what is more to the point, his colleagues have already found him to be a brainy man and a good, level headed adviser.

Martine Wins.

In his fight against washed money Senator Martine has for a long time endeavored to have 537 letters from bankers protesting against the system printed in the Record. Senator Smoot stood guard, and Martine was finally compelled to pick out half a dozen and condense the ideas of the others, but in the end he had the protest printed in the Record. His next move is to get legislative action doing away with washed money.

Warning the Galleries.

Session after session of the senate the presiding officer "warns the galleries." When something occurs which causes laughter or even applause, the vice president or the senator who may be in the chair solemnly announces that "applause or signs of approval or disapproval are not permitted in the galleries."

Oftentimes he goes so far as to say that the sergeant-at-arms will "clear the galleries" if the demonstration is repeated. And, like as not, it is repeated. During the recent Bryan debate it was repeated five times, but the galleries were not "cleared." In fact, the galleries have never been "cleared" for any such cause.

Jack and the Giant.

Big Ollie James and somewhat small Senator Lippitt, one from Rhode Island and the other from Kentucky, are absolutely unlike. They do not think alike; their ideas, training, environment, make them dissimilar. And so they fight over the tariff. Protection cannot go much too high for Lippitt, and it could be pared down to the bone for James, and then some. When they are in action one cannot but think of the old tale of Jack and the giant, although there is no slaughter in this case. Among other big things about Ollie James is his voice, which overwhelms his smaller antagonist.

Defend the Administration.

The Democrats in congress naturally defend the administration. The Democrats defended Bryan when attacked by Bristow for going about the country lecturing. They prevented the Republicans from taking adverse action in the Caminit-Diggs case in California. In both instances the Democrats were on the defensive and backing up the acts of the administration.

Bristow, who does yet call himself a Republican and who is at least a near Progressive, led the fight against Bryan. One Progressive, Polindexter of Washington, voted with the Democrats. Others of that party and leaning that way did not vote. But the Republicans and Progressives formed something of an alignment, just as they have been doing on the tariff bill. On different votes the same thing has occurred in the house.

Not In So Much of a Rush.

There was a time when it seemed as if the house of representatives could brook not a moment of delay in getting at the Mullall charges. Members pleaded for instant action; they deplored the delay of a few days for the committee to consider the resolution; they jumped on Jim Mann for forcing an adjournment when there was no quorum; in fact, it seemed as if speed on a high gear only would satisfy the house.

And yet, after the committee was appointed, days drifted into weeks, and the house did nothing. The fact was that the senate had captured Mullall and had the big show under one tent and that tent was in the senate office building.

May Demand a Quorum.

Minority Leader Mann has shown irritation over some things the Democrats have done and may insist that a quorum shall be in the house from this time forward. "We are here for all summer," he remarked when the majority refused to permit a discussion of the Caminit-Diggs case by Congressman Kahn of California. Of course the Democrats can keep a quorum if their members will attend, for they have a very large majority.

Another Investigation?

It takes so little to start an investigation these days that it would not be surprising if Senator Bristow's intimation that another senator had been too free with the telegraph at government expense would start another inquiry. In these days it doesn't take much more than the waving of a hand and saying "Seat" to produce a congressional inquiry.

Reforming the Record.

The senate threatened to get virtuous the other day about loading the Record with everything that came handy. A protest was made by Senator Stone against printing editorials in the Record, followed by Senator Brandagee, who declared that the Record should contain only what transpired in the senate.

Other senators agreed that the Record should be simplicity in itself. And then everybody felt better. And the issue of the Record containing this very debate was filled with page upon page of reprinted matter, much of it never receiving more than a casual mention in the debate. Such is the way of the senate.

Democratic All Right.

Holding a three-year-old riot on his lap while presiding over the senate during the warmest debate this session, the vice president demonstrated his Democratic simplicity. "And he attracted a great deal of notice by doing so."

Chamberlain's Committee.

Most of the committees of both houses of congress are not doing any business, but such is not the case in regard to the public lands committee of which Senator-Chamberlain is chairman. The western men of that committee are getting their bills considered, reported and passed. There seems to be plenty in the way of local land legislation every session of congress.

BRIGHT WILLIE.

JURY BOX BENEATH TREE.

Justice, Ejected From City Hall, Holds Court on Lawn.

St. Louis.—With his desk under a big oak tree and the jury box arranged under another tree near by, Justice Frank Ford of Upper Alton held court in the yard of the town lot in Upper Alton.

Justice Ford was ejected from the village hall several days ago by the city officials, who allege that he is holding office illegally and has no right to city quarters.

Ford had a child abandonment case to try, and he arranged everything outside under the tree, where his desk and law books still remain, just as they were piled outside by the police who ejected him.

"Twice little showers caused judge, jury and witnesses to run to the near by store."

News From Over the State

Probing Loan Control.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 23.—County Prosecutor Locher yesterday began an investigation of an alleged combination of trust companies to control Cleveland real estate loans. Complaints are that banks involved are violating the state banking laws. It is charged local banks are preparing to control land loans through a central appraisal board, which shall fix valuations and the maximum, which any bank in the combination will loan to a would-be borrower.

Strikers are Nabbed.

Cincinnati, July 23.—More than 30 men, said to be garment workers, who are still out on strike, were arrested soon after noon yesterday on charges of disorderly conduct. It is said that the men congregated about the Textile building and started several fights. It took three patrol wagons to carry the men placed under arrest to police headquarters.

Ape Brightens Lima.

Lima, July 23.—Fred L. Loesch, superintendent of the City Park, was rescued from the clutches of a wild ape, which had broken his cage in the park menagerie yesterday. The monkey had nearly choked him to death. A few moments later pedestrians were terrorized when the gigantic monkey ran through the streets of the West End and spread terror in his path. Hundreds fled at the ape's approach and in response to a riot call members of the police department captured the animal. When Loesch held up a piece of meat before the cage the ape leaped through the door and attacked the keeper.

Arrest Village Mayor.

Washington, D. C., July 23.—Mayor Creath of Bloomingburg, before whom liquor cases prosecuted by the Washington, C. H. Law and Order league and Burns detectives were tried, has been arrested on a charge of interfering with an officer and will be tried before Magistrate

Craig here, August 1. Mayor Creath gave $100 bond. He is alleged to have interfered with Police Chief McCoy and another officer of the local department, who sought to arrest the detectives on charges of furnishing liquor and pejury. The detectives made a sensational escape from Bloomingburg the night of July 3 in an automobile and have never returned to Fayette county.

Dayton Has a Starver.

Dayton, July 23.—The officials of the central police station are in a quandary as to the proper procedure in the case of a militiaman who has been confined in the prison for five days on a charge of desertion. The regulation prison ration for the morning, noon and evening meals consists of bread, water and ketchup. The prisoner has sickened of ketchup and is slowly starving, the officers say. In the meantime the accused is held to await action by a military court.

Electricity Kills Cat.

Hamden, July 23.—A strange sight was witnessed by the passengers on a Wellston and Jackson Belt Line car which stopped at a crossroads near Jackson yesterday, when a large cat was electrocuted on top of a pole supporting the trolley wire. The cat climbed the pole to get some birds and came in contact with a live wire from which the insulation had worn off. A moment later her writhing form went up in a blue flame. Waiting at the bottom of the pole were four young kittens.

Hurt in Elevator Accident.

Dayton, July 23.—Joseph Tate, a janitor in an office building was fatally injured in an elevator accident yesterday when he was caught between floors.

Broken Hip Causes Death.

London, July 23.—Mrs. Mary Eliza Harvey, aged 73, wife of Marion Harvey, died today at her home from a broken hip.

Recently Appointed Penitentiary Physician, Sells Hebron Residence—Will Take Trip in Near Future.

Dr. O. M. Kramer of Hebron, who has received the appointment of physician and surgeon at the Ohio Penitentiary, has sold his residence in Hebron to Mr. Frank Robinson of that city. Dr. Kramer is to give up possession of the residence at the end of the third week in August when he assumes his new duties.

Sometime during the first week of August the doctor expects to leave on an extensive trip of several weeks' duration. He will visit Old Point Comfort and other cities in the south.

Mr. Purvis Makes Another "Clean-Up"

J. E. Purvis, the Bremen oil man, who has made a fortune operating in Ohio where the wise ones all declared no oil could be found, is in for another big cleanup in a field near Logan, where he owns a number of big leases, by reason of an oil boom there following the drilling in of a 150-barrel well last week by the Union Furnace Oil company. Most of the stock in the well is owned by Logan people who had faith in the oil-producing ability of that section, and they have made good. The well flows so no pumping will be necessary.

Others are selling their holdings there at good profit, but it is believed that Mr. Purvis will prefer to retain his and operate on them. Mr. Purvis recently bought Leif Island, Buckeye Lake.

Los Angeles Girl Will Have Trouble Marrying Prince Stanislaus Sulkowski

Prince Stanislaus Sulkowski and Miss Marie Louise Freese of Los Angeles, whose engagement was announced some days ago, will not be wedded without difficulty, if at all. The result depends largely on the nerve of the prince. Will he run counter to the wishes of his family and the nobility of Austria? Miss Freese is the daughter of a wealthy Los Angeles family long in society of southern California. The prince comes from one of the oldest Polish-Austrian families, which are bitterly opposed to an attempt to raise a young woman without a title to the position of princess.

WILL ADDRESS THE HILLIKINS AT COLUMBUS

Flood Prevention Day Program to Be Carried Out at Olentangy Park.

It is likely that many Newark people in Columbus next Wednesday will attend the old fashioned Hillikin bean dinner and Flood Prevention Day program to be given in Olentangy park under the auspices of the Hillikin Association of Columbus. A number of invitations have been distributed here.

The object of the meeting is to discuss ways and means of preventing a repetition of the disastrous floods of a few months ago. Prominent speakers have been invited, including Secretary Bryan, Governor Cox, Senators Pomeroy and Burton, John H. Patterson of Dayton, Congressman Brumbaugh, Attorney General Hogan, Mayor Karb of Columbus, and Judge R. M. Wanamaker of the supreme court.

Senators Pomeroy and Burton, Governor Cox and Mayor Karb have already promised to be present. That a big attendance is anticipated is shown by the fact that dinner will be prepared for 25,000.

STATEMENT IS PROMISED BY VINCENT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Columbus, July 25.—After state officials have informed him what they have to offer in the way of immunity, Walter P. Vincent of Cincinnati, who is being held in the Franklin county jail on a charge of perjury, alleged to have been committed in connection with the securing of signatures to the Green act referendum petitions, will probably tell all he knows of the movement against the act. This was made clear to Attorney General Hogan and his assistant, Charles C. Marshall, who talked with Vincent today at the jail.

Vincent refused to divulge any information which would throw light upon new leads in the referendum investigation, but he told the attorney general that he would probably have something to say after he had consulted his attorney. Another conference will be held with him next Monday.

For the purpose of making comparisons with the poll books of several of the wards in Summit county, a photographer today, in the secretary of state's office made photographs of a number of the petitions for a referendum on the Green act which were "circulated" in that county.

The photographs, according to administration officials, are expected to show that the names appear on the petitions in the same order as they are on the poll books and also expected to demonstrate that the names were written largely by the same person.

The photographs were taken under the direction of W. L. Finley, Democratic state chairman, who is assisting Governor Cox in the expose of the alleged frauds.

SEC. BRYAN

Silent on Mexican Affairs—Holds Conference With President at White House.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, July 25.—Secretary Bryan upon his return today from his lecture tour silent on Mexican affairs but observed that the Iowa crops were fine. He went almost immediately to the White House to confer with President Wilson.

Secretary Bryan conferred briefly with the President and made an appointment for a longer conference later in the day.

Although a regular cabinet meeting was scheduled for today, none was held because most of the cabinet members are out of the city.

NEW DIRECTORY READY SEPT. 1

R. L. Polk & Company, who have been busy for several weeks collecting material for the new City Directory, have a force of six men canvassing the city, visiting every residence, every store and factory in the city. They expect to have the new directory ready for distribution September 1st. One of the canvassers completed each name will be checked thirteen different times, and comparison will be made with the old directory. Every precaution is being taken to have the material in the book correct, and effort is also made to have no name misspelled.

The directories this year will sell for $5 a copy.

BOYS STEAL AUTO.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Akron, Ohio, July 25.—Charles Jones, aged 20, and Roland Wilson, aged 17, of Cleveland, were arrested here this forenoon on the charge of having stolen an automobile, No. 16143, belonging to Robert C. Rice, of Lakewood, a suburb of Cleveland. The boys were driving the machine in Akron when arrested. They are being held for the Cleveland police.

The sweetness of revenge is often only sugar coated.

COURT NEWS

Divorce Statistics.
Notwithstanding it appears husbands of Licking county wives have been less troublesome during the past twelve months, divorce petitions have become much more numerous. That might be construed into an argument in favor of the husbands.

Anyhow it's a matter of record in Probate court that for the year ending June 30, 1913, there were 290 divorces granted, as against only 236 during a corresponding period in 1912.

Not only that, but in the twelve months just past, 215 of the 290 divorces were sought by wives, and on the following grounds:

Miscellaneous, 124; absence and neglect, 93; cruelty, 43; infidelity, 25; intoxication, 4; and fraud, 1.

In 1912 reports it was shown that of the 154 proceedings instituted by wives out of 236 cases, the chief cause was absence and neglect in 91 instances.

Juvenile Court.

Luella Sachs, aged 14 and radiant, whose disappearance was reported to Juvenile court officers and resulted in investigation of a wide-spread search, bobbed up serenely as it were, Thursday night. She is awaiting decision of Judge Hunter and may be committed to the Delaware home for girls, say authorities.

Luella told Juvenile Officer Mary Miller that she came home from Chester, W. Va., Tuesday night, having gone there Monday afternoon. She gave the officers the name of a woman she claimed as her cousin and with whom she said she stayed while in Chester.

Juvenile officers sat up and listened when Luella told them she arrived home Tuesday night, found the door locked and so slept at the home of a woman who occupies the first floor of her parents' home in East Newark. According to her story through all the search of two days and nights she has been following her accustomed habits.

Juvenile Officer Mary Miller said Friday: "We are taking Luella's story with plenty of salt."

NO PRIMARIES FOR TOWNSHIP NOMINATIONS

Clerk Michael Sachs of the board of deputy state supervisors of elections, was in Columbus Thursday where he visited the office of Secretary of State Graves regarding the coming primary elections. Secretary Graves told Mr. Sachs that no township officers would be nominated by primary this year. All township candidates will be nominated by petition.

There has been some confusion with reference to the primary law and its relation to the nomination of township officers but this statement from Secretary of State Graves settles the matter as far as the 1913 primaries are concerned.

OHIO ELECTRIC IS CONSIDERING SITE PURCHASE

O. C. Jones returned Friday from a two days' conference in Cincinnati with officials of the Ohio Electric railway, the outcome of which is the announcement that negotiations looking toward purchase of a passenger and freight station site in Newark have narrowed down to a point where an early decision is likely.

Officials have sifted the question to a matter of dollars and cents in consideration of three sites, one the Meyer & Lindorf corner, including the property to the rear, comprising the frontage on North Park Place, Second and Church streets; a second being the W. L. Prout property in East Main street, and another the canal strip between Second and Third streets.

FINAL EVENTS IN THE PUT-IN-BAY YACHT REGATTA

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Put-in-Bay, Ohio, July 25.—Final heats in the Inter-lake regatta yacht races were sailed today, with about 55 entrants in all the ten classes starting. When the boats were sent away this morning a seven mile breeze prevailed but it flattened gradually until some of the boats were drifting helplessly before the first stake was reached on the nine mile triangular course around Rattlesnake Island.

ALL NIGHT LIGHTS FOR CITY PARKS

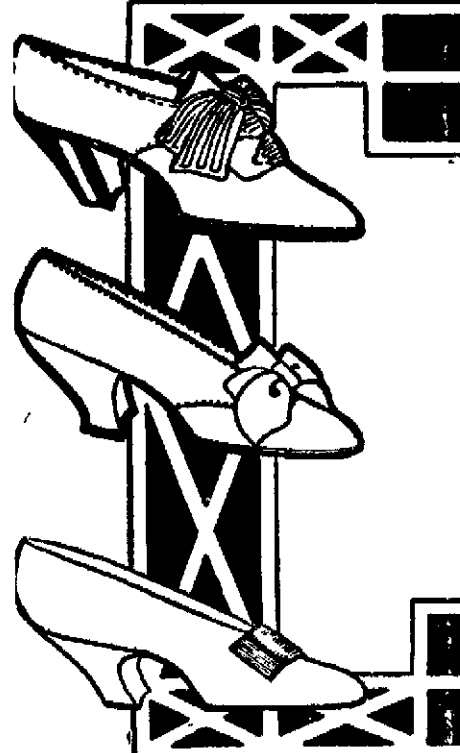

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Akron, Ohio, July 25.—A system of lighting which will turn night into day in all the city parks is the plan of Service Director R. M. Philmore of Akron, following numerous complaints of gross immorality and attacks upon citizens by criminals who have been using the parks as a place to sleep. The city light expert is now at work upon Philmore's plan and when completed the parks of Akron will be brilliantly lit all night.

College Professor New Minister to China

President Wilson, himself a professor of politics in Princeton before he went into practical politics, has chosen a professor of political economy as minister to China. It is believed that Professor Paul S. Reinsch of the University of Wisconsin has long been known to the ex-Princeton professor. He will take the place which Charles R. Crane, the Chicago millionaire, and present Progressive, would have filled had he not talked too much to suit President Taft, after he had started to the post to which he had been appointed.

Dr. Reinsch is a writer of recognized authority on oriental topics and Far Eastern politics. His works on those subjects have been translated into Japanese, Chinese, Spanish and German.

He was born in Milwaukee in 1869, was educated in Berlin, Rome and Paris, and began his work at the University of Wisconsin in 1899. He has been active in Pan-American conferences and in societies for the study of international law and historical research. He is married and lives in Madison, Wis.

The Human Procession

Two celebrities of the American stage, David Belasco and "Marrying Mr. Goodwin," will be the recipients of birthday congratulations today.

The distinguished playwright is a "native son" of San Francisco, where he was born fifty-four years ago today. His father was English, his mother Portuguese, but Mr. Belasco is a Californian and detests "japs." His first drama, entitled "Jim Black; or The Regulator's Revenge," was written at fourteen. A year later he found employment as call boy at the old California Theatre, and was still in his teens when he became stage manager. His twenty-first birthday found him in New York as stage manager of the old Madison Square Theatre. His first pronounced hit as a dramatic author was made in 1881 with "May Blossoms."

Life is just one wild after another with Nathaniel Carl Goodwin, who was born in Boston fifty-six annus ago today. Nat was a dry goods clerk in his native city for some time before he made his first disastrous stage appearance. That was in Providence with a stock company. When his cue came Nat rushed on the stage, moved his lips vainly for a moment, and then fell in a faint. When he recovered he was shipped back to Boston and again became a clerk. Soon afterward his ability as a mimic led to an engagement at the Howard Athenaeum, Boston, where he gave imitations of prominent actors, receiving $5 per week. Mr. Goodwin's latest wife, the little, blonde Marjorie Moreland, an actress. Nat recently had to dispose of much of his property to enable him to make a final settlement on Edna Goodrich, one of his ex-wives. Miss Goodrich has been studying "local color" in Normandy and Nova Scotia to fit herself for the role of Evangeline in the dramatized version of Longfellow's poem.

thirty-seventh milestone today. The young Duke is prominent in the House of Lords and is a close friend of King George, while his "Yankee Duchess" is a favorite of Queen Mary. SUPERINTENDENT CHICAGO SCHOOLS RESIGNS POSITION
Chicago, July 25.—Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, superintendent of public schools in Chicago since 1909, has announced her resignation. Mrs. Young gave no reason for resigning, but said her intention had been known some time to members of the board of education. Lack of harmony between Mrs. Young and the board of education is said to be the cause. The board has changed complexion politically with a change of administration since Mrs. Young's appointment and she had found it difficult recently to effectuate her plans.
"I can fight for a principle; I can fight for another person, but I am too old to fight for myself," said Mrs. Young yesterday.
Mrs. Young is 68 years old. She has been a school teacher since 1862, president of the state board of education, president of the National Educational Association in 1910-11 and is one of the most prominent women educators in the United States. Her appointment as superintendent of the Chicago schools, at an annual salary of $10,000, was a sensation at the time.
Her administration of the position has developed "many branches of training here, particularly along the line of vocational education and improvement of teachers' positions."

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by your druggist under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it fails.
Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.
Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money back guarantee.

Good Beer
MAKES GOOD NATURE
And good nature makes friends. So the answer is: Good beer makes friends with everybody. In these days of so much stomach trouble, one is really lucky to encounter anyone with a pleasant disposition—and all for the reason of a bad stomach, resulting from indigestion. So many people don't know why their stomachs are bad. But the reason is simple enough. The finer tissues in the lining of the stomach become weakened from overwork and need a tonic—a tone-giver—and that is just what

First Things
The first Duke of Mecklenburg and the founder of the ruling house was Genserlo, the Vandal, who ravaged the western empire in the fifth century, and who was born, according to ancient records, just fifteen centuries ago today and died in 477. Mecklenburg, in north Germany, is now divided into the two grand duchies of Mecklenburg-Schwerin and Mecklenburg-Strelitz, this division having been made in 1701. In 1815 the dukes were made grand dukes. It has recently been reported that the present hereditary Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Strelitz will marry Princess Patricia, daughter of the Duke of Connaught. Such an alliance would be by no means the first between the royal family of England and the house of Mecklenburg. King George III married Charlotte, a daughter of the Duke of Mecklenburg-Strelitz, in 1761, and their son, the Duke of Cumberland, afterward the King of Hanover, married Princess Frederica, a daughter of another Duke of Mecklenburg-Strelitz.
CHINESE NAVY REMAINS LOYAL TO THE EMPEROR
(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, July 25.—Reports to the state department from the American legation at Peking declared that in the fighting near Shanghai, the navy, being regularly supplied with funds, remained loyal to Yuan Shi Kai, while the Chinese merchants at Canton also are opposing the rebellion from business considerations.
On the whole the government troops are successfully withstanding the attacks of the rebels at the Shanghai arsenal, while the southern troops on the Pukowline are reported to be retreating. At Hankow a majority of the people are thought to be favorable to the rebel cause, but the vice president who is located there is confident of his ability to prevent uprising.
The Chinese troops are reported to have sustained defeat in a battle with the Mongols fifty miles north of Kalgan, where a separatist movement is under way.

Here is Alice Eis, whose sensational dance, "Le Rouge et Noir," made Broadway sit up and take notice, and which finally resulted in the arrest of herself and partner, and of Arthur Hammerstein, at whose theater she was appearing. No conviction followed the arrest, however, and Miss Eis was allowed to continue her dance unmolested.
Miss Eis is the possessor of a beautiful back that is said to have caused Kitty Gordon many a pang of jealousy. Her dance "Le Rouge et Noir" was originated by her partner, Mr. French, several years ago at Monte Carlo. NEEDLE IN BODY OVER 25 YEARS
Columbus, O., July 25.—Gangrene, which set in following an operation for appendicitis at Protestant hospital yesterday, caused the death of Ora S. Rice, chief chemist of the Buckeye Steel Castings company.
When Mr. Rice was operated upon by Dr. C. B. Hoy, a needle, swallowed over a quarter of a century ago, when he was only six years old, was found imbedded in a mass of stone in one end of his appendix. His condition showed improvement, following the operation, until yesterday, when evidences of gangrene were so serious that all efforts of surgeons to prevent its spreading were without avail.
His body will be sent to his home in Jackson for burial.

M. P. ASHBROOK IS WITH GIDEONS
Toronto, Ont., July 25.—The first international convention of the Gideons, the commercial travelers' association, widely known through their efforts to place Bibles in hotel rooms is now in session. M. P. Ashbrook of Granville, Ohio, is a prominent figure in the gathering, and is being boomed for the presidency.
Though the movement is only six years old, the Canadian and American organizations have an aggregate membership of 15,000 and have distributed more than 200,000 Bibles.

Now Are the Days Children Need Care
Summer Heat Dangerous to Little Ones Whose Bowels are Neglected.

A mother cannot do better for her children than to teach them from their earliest days regularity of the bowels. Regularity can be promoted without the child knowing it by watching its food and by so varying the food that all the elements of digestion are used, when nature will do the rest. The future health of the child depends upon this.
But try as you will there are times when the little one will become constipated and bilious. In hot weather immediate attention is necessary, as many serious diseases result from stuffed-up bowels. Don't give salts or cathartics or purgatives, as they are too harsh, but give a gentle, pleasant-tasting bowel stimulant like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It has been used by the children of this as well as a former generation, and thousands of families are proud to speak well of it, among whom we can mention Mrs. Louise Reynolds, 909 Jackson St., Lynchburg, Va., who is glad to recommend it, and Mr. Chas. W. Allen, Manor, Texas, who writes that he often felt 100 years old, but feels younger now than his years.
Every druggist sells Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and the price is only fifty cents and one dollar a large bottle. It will cure constipation and biliousness in young or old, break up a cold and stop summer diarrhoea by ridding the bowels of the poisons and germs that cause the trouble. It is a grand family laxative, with valuable tonic properties.
Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it, postpaid, by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 418 Washington street, Monticello, Ill.

Some Evidence of Evolution of English Government Toward Democracy But It's Slow.

(By Hon. Edward Kibler.)
London, England, July 25.—Feeling a bit homesick yesterday, I picked up a map of England and was greatly comforted to find within a radius of one hundred miles the towns of Newark, Mansfield and Cambridge, and a little further to the south, the town of Chatham. My ancient friend Dick Markham of West Main street, who used to be the engineer of the court house, was born in Newark, England, and I half promised him I would go there to hunt up his ancestors among the tombstones.

We spent two days last week in Oxford with its 21 colleges. The antiquity of things here was bewildering. One of the colleges, Merston, was established in 1264, and is still educating the youth. The other twenty followed along. It has the oldest library in Europe, dating from 1310. It seemed that time here had ended and eternity begun. We invaded the House of Parliament yesterday. Ordinarily there is no session on Saturdays. As we were leaving the building, we heard our names called from a distance (Mrs. Kibler said it sounded like sacred music) and were gratified to meet a couple of our steamship acquaintances—ladies from Atlantic City and Philadelphia, who had left our steamer at Plymouth and motored to London. This week we go to Stratford on Avon, Warwick and Kenilworth and then to Paris for a few days.

Through the kindness of Senator Pomeroy of Ohio, I was furnished with a letter from the office of the U. S. Secretary of State to the American Ambassador at London, Hon. Walter H. Page, requesting for us such polite attentions from the embassy as the office afforded which has proved of great value to us, admitting us to places which would otherwise be closed to us.

Although London is lavishly equipped with parks, commons and open spaces for the accommodation of the public, I have seen nowhere any equipment such as we have at the White and Heisey athletic fields for the amusement of the children.

We are stopping at a residential hotel in Torrington Square and I learned it was in a tract of 250 acres right in the heart of London, solidly built up with houses four stories high and all built under year leases made over one hundred years ago by the Duke of Bedford, who by the expiration of the leases has become by reversion the owner of all these improvements. Other of the nobility, I am told, have like holdings in London and have been enormously enriched by the expiration of like leases. This looks undemocratic to me and our forefathers were endowed with a divine wisdom when they rejected the idea of primogeniture in framing the American Constitution and laws. But there is a surprising reverence for the nobility here. It is in the English blood, but they have clipped some of the feathers from the wings of the House of Lords, so that they can't fly so high as they used to in obstructing the passage of legislation demanded by the people. So there is some evidence of the evolution of the English government toward democracy. It is slow but sure.

Through the Advocate which has reached us regularly in England we have kept in touch with affairs at home and are advised of the torrid conditions in Newark, while we have experienced on sea and on land cold weather—uncomfortably so. Winter clothing scarcely kept us warm on the ocean and in London the weather is abnormally cold.

Our voyage was a pleasant one—quiet sea and good weather. We were ever in wireless communication with land and with passing ships at all times. News bulletins were posted daily.

At our table in the dining room was a young Chinaman, Mr. Wen Po Lo, just graduated from a New York University, rich and well connected at home—one of whose brothers, a graduate of Oxford, is now the attorney-general of the Chinese Republic, and another brother, a graduate of Heidelberg, is assistant secretary of state of the new republic. Young Po was very affable, gentlemanly and intelligent. We walked the decks together, burned some tobacco, expressed our views on the great questions and settled all the ills that vex mankind. A newspaper was published on shipboard, giving chiefly the bulletin news.

When we anchored outside of Plymouth a newspaper came on board containing a summary of all the news happening while we were on the sea (in tabloid form) which struck me as a sample of newspaper enterprise which would please the manager of the Advocate.

We are leisurely "doing" London and being "done" by it. Several show places such as the crown jewels at the Tower, the art galleries at Hampton Court were closed to the public on account of the activities of the militant suffragettes and at the tower Mrs. Kibler's handbag had to be checked and left outside—on the same account that a lady with a handbag is a dangerous proposition at this time in England. British people are greatly alarmed at the threats of these demented creatures and the other day it was reported that they propose to fire the town of London—to further demonstrate the JUSTICE of their demands! Of course it is the opinion of all sensible people here—men and women—that these terrorists are killing their cause at home and abroad. Surely the sentiment of a great majority of the men and women

Railway Affairs

During the year just closed, the Baltimore and Ohio, Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton systems installed considerable machinery for the safety of train handling. On the western section of the Chicago main line automatic block signals were installed between McCool's and La Paz, a distance of 45 miles. These signals will be put into operation during the present week. On the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton line 18 miles of automatic signals are being installed between Glenwood and Indianapolis. On the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern, automatic block signals are being installed between North Vernon and Milan, Ind., 30 miles, and between Nebo and Cochran Ind., 6 miles.

Important track improvements are under way on the New Castle division of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, between Chicago Junction and Nova, O., which include the laying of 29 miles of 100-pound rail on this double track section of road and rebalancing the line with stone. This work was undertaken in furtherance of the policy to the highest standard of maintenance.

A contract has been let for the construction of a double track steel bridge at Benwood, W. Va., on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. The length of the bridge will be about 1000 feet. The contract for the substructure has been let to the Drayco Contracting company, Pittsburg, and the contract for the superstructure, or steel work, will be awarded in the near future and the bridge completed without delay.

ZANESVILLE MAN CARRIES NEEDLE IN BODY FOR 15 YEARS

Zanesville, O., July 25.—A surgeon's needle which had been in the body of John A. Stotts of 455 Belknap street for about 15 years, worked its way to the body's surface Wednesday and was extricated from his left arm.

Mr. Stotts underwent an operation about 15 years ago and it is supposed the needle was forgotten at that time and has been in his anatomy ever since. Wednesday morning Mr. Stotts suffered a slight pain in his left arm, but thought little of it. As the day advanced the pain became more severe and investigation of the arm showed a needle just above the skin surface. A physician removed it and Mr. Stotts suffered no further pain, save a slight soreness where it was taken out.

CHEWING TOBACCO GROWING IN FAVOR

Shown by Recent Large Increase in Sales of a Popular Chewing Tobacco.

Recent increases in the sales of Piper Heidsieck, a high-grade chewing tobacco, are pointed out by tobacco experts as an indication that there is a decidedly growing preference for plug tobacco. It is the general opinion in the tobacco trade that this is due to wider appreciation of the fact that tobacco is most satisfying when chewed. The manufacturers of Piper Heidsieck are taking advantage of the present trend to bring this tobacco to the general attention of tobacco users here.

Local tobacco dealers have been supplied with a limited number of standard safety razors and are giving one to each customer who purchases ten cents' worth of Piper Heidsieck. The razor is going so fast, say the dealers, that the supply is being rapidly depleted. They advise patrons who desire one of the free razors to act quickly. And experienced tobacco users seem to be a unit in the opinion that Piper Heidsieck is a very fine, satisfying chewing tobacco. The occasion, therefore, seems to be an all-around bargain.
